Working Holiday Visas

A working holiday visa is a permit that allows people with certain nationalities to legally work, and sometimes study, in certain countries around the world. Working holiday visas typically have restrictions and requirements, such as age limits (typically between 18 and 30 or 35 ), the need to prove one has sufficient funds, and more. Read our article What Is a Working Holiday Visa? for more information.

To see if you qualify for a working holiday visa, first look below for the country you want to teach in (column 1), see if you have nationality in a country that offers a working holiday visa to work there (column 2), and find more information on the visa and its requirements by selecting the Working Holiday Visa link (column 3). The following list may not contain every country that offers a Working Holiday Visa. Check your home country's embassy website to see if you can obtain a Working Holiday Visa.
