

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL-CONSTITUTION NAMES OXBLUE A WINNER OF THE

TOP WORKPLACES 2019 AWARD

OxBlue Corporation honored as one of the best places to work.

ATLANTA, MARCH 4, 2019 – OxBlue, a pioneer in the construction time-lapse camera market, made the Atlanta Journal Constitution’s (AJC) Top Workplaces list for two consecutive years.

The list considers employee responses to a third-party survey, collected by a third-party research partner, Energage, LLC, a leading provider of technology engagement tools. It measures several aspects of workplace culture, including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“Top Workplaces is more than just recognition,” said Doug Claffey, CEO of Energage. “Our research shows organizations that earn the award attract better talent, experience lower turnover, and are better equipped to deliver bottom-line results. Their leaders prioritize and carefully craft a healthy workplace culture that supports employee engagement.”

OxBlue employees’ responses revealed a high level of engagement and fulfillment within the company. Job satisfaction continues to grow, and employees feel connected and in sync with the company’s direction.

“We want our employees to be successful and feel valued, which fosters strong connections to OxBlue and our mission to provide the best service to our clients,” says CEO Chandler McCormack

“Becoming a Top Workplace isn’t something organizations can buy,” Claffey said. “It’s an achievement

“OUR GOAL IS TO CREATE AN ENVIRONMENT THAT IS A WIN-WIN FOR EVERYONE INVOLVED.”
