STUDIO/E
ENDURANCE
Leading to better outcomes in a changing world

Why. Leading in today's complex and unpredictable world is hard. Going at it alone is even harder. It requires clarity, confidence, diversity of thought and fresh perspective. It takes endurance.

What. Endurance helps you thrive by combining the power of a guided peer-to-peer advisory group where you will gain the ongoing wisdom and guidance of talented peer professionals who are facing similar challenges of today with engaging learning experiences that will lead to better outcomes for tomorrow.

How and When. Each month, you'll receive exclusive access to:

Peer-to-Peer Advisory. A 2.5-hour guided session will connect you to talented peers and support your navigation of real-time challenges with thought-partnership and advice. With the safety of confidentiality present, you can tackle your biggest decisions, both personal and professional.

Curated Learning Experiences. Ninety-minutes with the larger Endurance community will connect you with an even greater diversity of backgrounds. You will unleash your intellect around relevant ideas that will result in practical wisdom that goes beyond merely leading an organization.

Personal Guidance. A one-hour 1x1 session with a Studio/E guide who will point you to ideas, frameworks, tools and others who can help you thrive and stay accountable to your goals.

> In addition to making fantastic connections with very inspirational people, Studio/E gave me a chance to take time to think about what I want to accomplish, how I'm going to do it, and different paths to use that wouldn't necessarily be natural to me … it's an incredible combination.
