

Corporation Jet Worldwide

Connecting People, Parcels and Businesses around the world

Introduction

History

Corporation Jet Worldwide is a Canadian-based, North American cross-border service provider with four decades of experience. Jet offers shipping options and logistics support for International parcels, pallets, imports, exports, reverse logistics, and direct to country shipping for online orders. By leveraging our strong partnerships developed over decades, we can offer best-in-class services that are key to winning e-commerce online orders from Canada.

Delivering Canadian International Shipping Solutions

Jet Worldwide has created unique cross-border solutions including labelling, airlift, final mile delivery, tracking and returns for e-commerce traffic. From Canadian gateways, shipping via Jet Worldwide includes labelling suitable for the entire journey of the product, up to final-mile delivery, via our online portal. Jet Worldwide's website and blog is Canada's premier resource for international shipping information to and from Canada.
