Information for Ordering Activities Applicable To All Special Item Numbers

Special Notice To Agencies: Small Business Participation

SBA strongly supports the participation of small business concerns in the Federal Acquisition Service. To enhance Small Business Participation SBA policy allows agencies to include in their procurement base and goals, the dollar value of orders expected to be placed against the Federal Supply Schedules, and to report accomplishments against these goals.

For orders exceeding the micro purchase threshold, FAR 8.404 requires agencies to consider the catalogs/pricelists of at least three schedule contractors or consider reasonably available information by using the GSA Advantage!® on-line shopping service (www.gsaadvantage.gov). The catalogs/pricelists, GSA Advantage!® and the Federal Acquisition Service Home Page (www.fss.gsa.gov) contain information on a broad array of products and services offered by small business concerns.

This information should be used as a tool to assist ordering activities in meeting or exceeding established small business goals. It should also be used as a tool to assist in including small, small disadvantaged, and women-owned small businesses among those considered when selecting pricelists for a best value determination. For orders exceeding the micro purchase threshold, customers are to give preference to small business concerns when two or more items at the same delivered price will satisfy their requirement.

Course Descriptions

A+ and Network+ Courses Separate or combo class

The A+/ Network+ program provides the student with a solid foundation in PC hardware and operating system knowledge (DOS / Windows 9x, 2000, NT 4.0 and XP), as well as the hands-on training necessary to succeed in the IT industry. Additional program hours in networking concepts, combined with application software, makes the A+/ Network+ certification program an excellent stepping stone to more advanced certifications. To receive the A+ certification students must pass two tests — Core Hardware and Operating Systems.

Network+ is a certification that ensures the knowledge of networking professionals with 18—24 months' experience in the IT industry, or those that possess equivalent knowledge and skills. Network+ is an entry level certification open to anyone who desires to learn networking basics as a foundation which can be applied towards other advanced certifications.

A+ and Network+ certification provides IT managers and supervisors with an increasingly important benchmark in the hiring and promotion process. What's more, companies are finding that incorporating certified technicians within their organizations helps build confidence and value. More and more companies are requiring computer certifications, such as A+, Network+ as a pre-requisite for employment. The last two hours of the Courses will be spent doing test prep and review.

Security+ Classroom or Live Online

This vendor neutral training course is designed for network and security administrators and those with similar job functions who have experience with general networking and basic security knowledge. This CompTIA Security+ course will educate the student on critical security concepts and is mapped to the exam to teach the student the language, theory and principles of the following domains:

- General security concepts
- Communications security
- Infrastructure security
- Basics of cryptography
- Operational and organizational security

With the new computer privacy laws all industries and agencies can benefit by employing a security specialist. In today's environment it has become an absolute must to implement and maintain security technologies and policies. Security+ takes the first step in teaching you to implement and monitor security on networks and computer systems, and respond to security breaches in the appropriate manner.

CompTIA Advanced Security Practitioner Classroom or Live Online

Enterprise security involves an understanding of various encryption technologies and concepts. CASP training covers this in detail as well as virtualized, distributed and cloud computing. Certified CASP practitioners must also understand vulnerabilities related to modern IT trends and the security requirements needed for virtual storage, NAS, SAN, iSCSI, FCoE and other technologies as well as how to manage secure storage.

Linux+

The CompTIA Linux+ certification is a new standard of competency for technicians with six-months experience installing, operating and maintaining Linux operating systems. ACE's Linux+ training course will help you meet the certification requirements and prepare you for the exam.

The Linux+ certification validates technical competency and provides a broad awareness of Linux operating systems. Those holding Linux+ certification demonstrate critical knowledge of installation, operation, administration and troubleshooting services.

The demand for Linux support professionals will continue to grow as companies integrate Linux as a low cost alternative for both the client and server side of their networks.

This program presents you with the concepts and skills necessary to install and configure a Linux operating system. Not only is Linux becoming a low cost alternative for client machines but also it is rapidly taking a hold of the Internet as a stable web server.

Cisco Certified Network Administrator (CCNA)

The CCNA certification (Cisco Certified Network Associate) indicates a foundation in and apprentice knowledge of networking. CCNA certified professionals can install, configure, and operate LAN, WAN, and dial access services for small networks (100 nodes or fewer), including but not limited to use of these protocols: IP, IGRP, Serial, Frame Relay, IP RIP, VLANs, RIP, Ethernet, Access Lists. The last two hours of the Courses will be spent doing test prep and review.

Project Management Professional (PMP) Classroom or Live Online

The Project Management Professional Course prepares the student and satisfies the educational requirement for attaining the PMP[®] Certification through PMI; (PMP certification conducted by PMI (Project Management Institute) - the leading professional association in project management established in 1969, is the world's most recognized and respected professional credential for individuals associated with project management. In 1999, PMI became the first organization in the world to have its Certification Program attain International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 9001 recognition.

Certified Wireless Network Administrator (CWNA)

CWNA is the foundation level wireless LAN certification for the industry standard CWNP Program. It is your starting point for wireless training and certification. CWNA covers a broad range of wireless LAN topics focused on 802.11 wireless technology rather than products of specific vendors. The Wireless LAN Administration course provides the networking professional a complete foundation of knowledge for entering into or advancing in the wireless networking industry.

Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) Classroom or Live Online

The CEH course explores the tactics commonly used to penetrate a network. The courseware maps to EC-Council's certification exam 312-50, and includes the official EC-Council Certified Ethical Textbook Volumes 1 & 2, an accompanying Lab Manual, a Linux OS CD, and 2 CD's containing over 300 of the latest hacking tools and exploits. This certification will fortify the application knowledge of security officers, auditors, security professionals, site administrators, and anyone who is concerned about the integrity of the network infrastructure. CEH candidates will be immersed into an interactive environment where they will be shown how to scan, test, hack and secure their own systems. Candidates will begin by understanding how perimeter defenses work and then be lead into scanning and attacking their own networks. No real network is harmed. Candidates then learn how intruders escalate privileges and what steps can be taken to secure a system.
