Management Liability Insurance is a tailor made and cost effective solution for key decision makers of a private company. It covers directors and officers liability, employment practices liability and crime under the one policy.

Key Policy Benefits

- Damages awarded as a result of mismanagement
- Defence cost and related legal expenses
- Cost and expenses for official investigations and enquiries
- Crisis containment and public relations expenses sub-limit SGD250,000
- Employment Practices Liability sub-limit 20% of policy limit
- Crime cover sub-limit SGD100,000.

Key Policy Exclusions

- Any criminal act by an insured
- Breach of professional duty
- Ongoing litigation before policy inception
- Bodily injury and property damage.

A typical Management Liability policy contains:

Cover for Directors & Officers & the Company for Wrongful Acts & Employment Practices Breaches

Cover against theft by employees & third parties

Cover for Workplace Health & Safety Investigations and Penalties

Investigations & prosecutions

A major benefit of Management Liability policies is the cover against action by regulatory bodies including for alleged breaches of Occupational Health & Safety laws and Pollution laws. The policy will advance defence costs for the attendance at regulatory investigations, as well as defence costs for defending regulatory prosecutions for breaches of legislation, subject to terms and conditions.

Direct Financial Loss sustained by the Company

Crime cover extends to:

This clause provides cover for loss suffered by an Insured company through the loss of money, securities or other assets either owned by the company or in the care, custody or control of the company for which the company is liable. This includes a fraudulent funds transfer (meaning instructions provided to a financial institution to transfer money or security without the knowledge of the company), but will not cover loss caused by Cyber attacks such as phishing emails.

Fees, costs and expenses of a fraud investigator are included in the policy coverage.

Employment Practice Breaches by the Company

Employment Practice Breaches include:

- Wrongful or unfair dismissal
- Refusal to hire, failure to promote, and wrongful deprivation of career opportunity
- Adverse changes to terms and conditions of employment
- Discrimination, harassment, defamation and breach of privacy
- Retaliation against an employee exercising their employment rights

Common Misconceptions

I have faithfully run my business for years and have done nothing wrong.

You do not need to commit a wrongdoing while managing the business for aggrieved parties to initiate a legal action against you.

We are a small company. Only public listed companies need Management Liability insurance.

The Companies Act imposes the same standard of care on directors of all companies, regardless of whether they are privately held or listed.

People sue companies, not individuals.

Companies are limited by shares. The directors can be named as co-defendants in the same proceedings, putting their personal assets at risk.

Protection against Real World Scenarios

SCENARIO:

The Claimant brought action against the Insured for unlawful sexual discrimination, harassment, victimisation and racial discrimination made towards them in the workplace.

The matter was taken to mediation and a settlement was eventually reached. The EPL section of the policy was triggered and payment was made in relation to the settlement and defence costs in defending the claim.
