Privacy Collection Statement

We are committed to protecting your privacy and complying with the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ) ('Privacy Act').

We use your information to assess the risk of providing you with insurance, provide quotations, issue policies and assess and manage claims, on behalf of the insurers we represent. If you do not provide us with full information, we may not be able to provide insurance or assess and manage a claim. If you provide us with information about someone else, you must obtain their consent to do so.

We may provide your personal information to the insurer we represent, insurance regulators and other insurance bodies such as the Insurance Council of New Zealand. We may also provide your information to your broker and any third party claims service providers (such as claims management companies, parties repairing or replacing the subject matter, loss adjusters and appointed law firms (and the like)). If a recipient is not regulated by laws which protect your information in a way that is similar to the Privacy Act, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that they protect your information in the same way we do or seek your consent before disclosing your information to them. We do not trade, rent or sell your information.

Our Privacy Policy contains more information about how to access and correct the information we hold about you and how to make a privacy related complaint, including how we will deal with it. By providing us with your personal information, you consent to its collection and use as outlined above and in our Privacy Policy. Ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy via email at privacy@dualnewzealand.co.nz or access it via our website using the following link.
