

Directors & Officers Profile

DUAL's Coverage:

Directors and Officers operate in a complex regulatory environment in New Zealand. With corporate regulation and both private and government surveillance on the rise, those tasked as the primary decision makers risk personal liability whilst making the tough decisions in today's modern business environment.

DUAL New Zealand is a leading provider of D&O Liability insurance, with our cover designed to provide comfort and protect the assets of Company Directors, Officers and Senior Managers against such claims.

We offer our Brokers and Insureds market leading cover, competitive pricing and a simple transaction; with instant quotes and binding available through the WebRater or tailored solutions from our dedicated Underwriting team.

Claims Specialists

DUAL New Zealand's Claims team includes lawyers and claims administrators with significant industry expertise to work with you to handle your claim from notification through to resolution.

We work in tandem with our capacity providers to ensure an efficient and smooth claims handling process. In addition, DUAL utilises specialist law firms and consultants with specific expertise in various industries and niche areas to ensure claims are handled in a cost effective, speedy and professional manner.

Why do you need D&O?

Your obligations as the primary decision maker, you may be at risk from stockholders, shareholders, and government bodies. You may be required to pay if you do not comply with the following:

1. To act in good faith and in the best interests of the company
2. To exercise your power as a director for a proper purpose
3. To not allow, agree or cause the business to be carried out in a way likely to create a substantial risk of serious loss to the company's creditors
4. To take the care, diligence and skill that a reasonable director would exercise in the same circumstances
5. To ensure the company can pay all its debts and has more assets than liabilities
6. Comply with the Companies Act.

Proven Claims Experience

D&O Claims Example 1

Profile:

Property developer, 120 staff, $60M turnover.

Background:

Action was taken against former Directors of the Insured for breach of duty for making transactions which had not been properly approved or documented. This resulted in the Insured's project failing as they did not have proper working capital to complete the development.

Response:

The Insured claimed under their policy and indemnity was granted.

Payment:

$86,000.

D&O Claims Example 2

Profile:

Fast food retailer, 200 staff, $10M turnover.

Background:

A claim was made against the Insured by an ex-employee who had worked as the maintenance worker for the Insured's various stores. The Claimant was made redundant and maintenance was outsourced to a national contractor. The ex-employee claimed for unfair dismissal as his redundancy was due to his age and complaints he had raised previously regarding employment conditions.

Response:

Indemnity was granted under the D&O section of their Evolution Policy. Indemnity was granted and the matter was settled for a lump sum payment to the Claimant before going to trial.

Payment:

$135,000.

D&O Claims Example 3

Profile:

Machinery Manufacturer, 300 staff, $100M turnover.

Background:

The Director of the Insured entered into an agreement to sell a fleet of their vehicles to the Claimant who was in the business of hiring out transport vehicles. The Claimant agreed to sign the contract on the verbal and written communication with the Director that another contract would be entered into which prevented the Insured from competing against the Claimant and to provide maintenance and repair to the fleet. The original agreement was signed by the Claimant which didn't contain the restraint from preventing the Insured from competing against the Claimant and allowed them the right to refuse maintenance and repair. The Insured and its Director were aware of this and didn't carry out the second agreement as previously promised with the Claimant. The Claimant then issued Court proceedings against the Insured and its Director claiming misrepresentation and deceptive conduct by the Director.

Response:

The Insured claimed under the Directors and Officers section of their Management Liability and was covered under the definition of Insured Person.

Payment:

$60,000
