

ComForCare Home Care Recently Certified as a DementiaWise® Office

Our DementiaWise® training, a proprietary program recognized by the Alzheimer's Association, has recently been completed by ComForCare Home Care of DementiaWise employs cutting-edge, evidence-based behavioral interventions to help older adults living with dementia optimize their abilities and enhance their quality of life.

Dementia care has become a top priority for ComForCare.

This training is offered to all team members, ensuring everyone is skilled in the most effective and advanced dementia care techniques. It is meant to systematically change how in-home caregivers deliver care, leveraging as many known best practices as possible.

Dementia Home Care Services We Offer

We optimize client independence whenever possible which results in more positive experiences. We assist with:

- Maximizing independence
- Hygiene assistance
- Meaningful activities
- Nutritious meal preparation

Give us a call to determine how we can assist you and your loved one!

