

Steven M. Glueck, CPA

215/419-5711 | sglueck@bbdcpa.com

Steve Glueck is a partner in our firm with more than 25 years of accounting and auditing experience. He works exclusively with our firm's approximately 400 not-for-profit clients.

Prior to joining BBD, Steve was a partner with a national accounting firm where he worked with a variety of not-for-profit and governmental organizations, including educational institutions, health and welfare organizations, foundations and cultural organizations. Steve also has worked for Lehigh University as an Accounting Supervisor and for a multinational manufacturing company as Director of Finance.

In addition to Steve's expertise in assisting our not-for-profit clients with their unique accounting and auditing needs, Steve offers our clients help with the following:

- Strategic planning
- Board development
- Financial management
- Governmental regulations compliance

Steve is committed to community service and has served on Boards or Committees for Ursinus College, Philadelphia Works, Mental Health Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Ned Smith Center for Nature and Art, Fair Food Philly, AIDSNET and TEAMS for Medical Missions. He also volunteers internationally to assist the disadvantaged in Cambodia and Jamaica.

A frequent public speaker, Steve has presented at both the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants and contributed to multiple webinars and various industry conferences.

He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the PICPA. Steve also serves on the PICPA Non-Profit Committee.

He is a graduate of Ursinus College, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in economics.
