Prohibiting the Teaching of Critical Race Theory in Public Schools

Great Minds® is the creator of Wit & Wisdom® curriculum, a highly rated English language arts curriculum implemented in districts across the country.

Great Minds unequivocally affirms that the Wit & Wisdom curriculum and core texts are factual and objective and do not promote or include instruction relating to critical race theory in any portion of Wit & Wisdom curriculum.

North Dakota House Bill 1508 defines "critical race theory" as the theory that racism is not merely the product of individual bias or prejudice, but that racism is systemically embedded in American society and the American legal system to facilitate racial inequality.
