

Great Minds Compliance with New Hampshire's Anti-CRT Legislation

New Hampshire House Bill 544 "Propagation of Divisive Concepts Prohibited" forbids any New Hampshire school district from instructing or training any teacher or student to adopt or believe any of the following "divisive concepts":

- (a) One race or sex is inherently superior to another race or sex.
- (b) The state of New Hampshire or the United States is fundamentally racist or sexist.
- (c) An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, is inherently racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsciously.
- (d) An individual should be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment solely or partly because of his or her race or sex.
- (e) Members of one race or sex cannot and should not attempt to treat others without respect to race or sex.
- (f) An individual's moral character is necessarily determined by his or her race or sex.
- (g) An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed in the past by other members of the same race or sex.
- (h) Any individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress on account of his or her race or sex.
- (i) Meritocracy or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist or sexist or were created by a particular race to oppress another race.
- (j) The term "divisive concepts" includes any other form of race or sex stereotyping or any other form of race or sex scapegoating.

Great Minds Wit & Wisdom® curriculum does not include any instruction or training of any of the above "divisive concepts." The Wit & Wisdom curriculum does, as permitted by New Hampshire House Bill 544, (i) promote racial, cultural, ethnic diversity and inclusiveness, consistent with the requirements of the law; and (ii) provide historical context for discussing divisive concepts in an objective manner and without endorsement.
