

Great Minds Compliance with Texas' Anti-CRT Legislation

Texas Senate Bill 2202 forbids any Tennessee teacher, administrator, or other employee in a state agency from requiring any of the following concepts in their course work:

- (1) One race or sex is inherently superior to another race or sex.
- (2) An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, is inherently racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsciously.
- (3) An individual should be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment solely or partly because of his or her race or sex.
- (4) Members of one race or sex cannot and should not attempt to treat others without respect to race or sex.
- (5) An individual's moral character is necessarily determined by his or her race or sex.
- (6) An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed in the past by other members of the same race or sex.
- (7) Any individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress on account of his or her race or sex.
- (8) Meritocracy or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist or sexist or were created by members of a particular race to oppress members of another race.

Great Minds Wit & Wisdom[®] curriculum does not include any of the above concepts in its materials. Wit & Wisdom does provide teachers and students materials that provide facts and context to aid in discussions of difficult historical topics.
