W&J STORIES

An ALUMNI HISTORY Project

Washington & Jefferson College Alumni
July 7 at 12:35 PM ·

Do you have a favorite W&J story? Did a professor or mentor challenge you in a meaningful way? Did you find your sweetheart at W&J? Have W&J friendships enriched your life? Whatever made your W&J experience special, we want to hear it!

We are excited to be partnering with Publishing Concepts, PCI on a unique alumni history publication that unites W&J alumni across generations, professions, and locations. Over the next few weeks, PCI will be contacting you via mail, phone, and email asking you to share your story and update your contact information. By sharing your memories, you'll ensure the rich history of W&J will be preserved for generations to come.

Have questions? Check out the W&J Stories FAQs page at jayconnected.com/wj-stories or contact us at alumni@washjeff.edu.

We are launching an engagement campaign to compile an oral history archive that will unite alumni across generations, professions, geography, and life experiences.

Publishing Concepts (PCI) will be contacting alumni by mail, phone, and email asking alumni to participate and update their information. The year-long project will be compiled into a book available for purchase in February 2022. Alumni can also submit two photos along with their information.

More information is available at northwesternstatealumni.com/pci-project or by contacting Danielle Cobb at cobbd@nsula.edu.

In just the first three days of our Maroon Memories Oral History Project, we've verified contact information for 246 alumni and collected 188 personal stories. Be on the lookout for this postcard and email from Alumni Association Executive Secretary Karen Burroughs Jones '74 and call to share your story. Why did you choose the College? What memory stands out most? How does your degree help you in your life and work today? Preserve your CofC memories for posterity. #KnowThyself

The College of Charleston recently launched a comprehensive alumni data verification project.

We've assembled the information currently listed in our alumni files and now need your help to confirm the accuracy of your data and fill in any information gaps.

Up-to-date alumni information is essential for engaging alumni with the College as well as determining our ranking in national evaluations.

That's why it's so important to call.
