Lauren Ebersole Hutcheson regularly represents defendants and employers in all aspects of civil litigation. She specializes in defending workers' compensation matters and personal injury litigation. Lauren is an experienced trial lawyer who has successfully tried a number of jury trials in Virginia and has handled a significant number of claims before the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission.

Lauren has been named by Virginia Business as one of Virginia's Legal Elite in the Young Lawyers' Division, and by Richmond Magazine as one of Virginia's rising star SuperLawyers for 2012, 2009, 2008, and 2007. She has also been named to The Best Lawyers in America every year since 2012 in the Personal Injury Litigation for Defendants.

Prior to joining McCandlish Holton, Lauren served as law clerk for the 12th Judicial Circuit in Chesterfield County. She worked primarily for the Honorable John F. Daffron, Jr. and the Honorable Michael C. Allen.

Lauren served as president of the Penn State Equestrian Team, where she successfully competed in the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, leading the team to Nationals from 1993 through 1995. After graduating, she remained at Penn State as an assistant coach of the equestrian team for the 1995- 1996 academic year. While at the University of Richmond School of Law, Lauren served as a co-chair for the Law School Admissions Representatives.
