

Online booking and scheduling software

Provide your customers with your real-time availabilities on your company's services and resources, 24h/7d

How does making appointments online ?

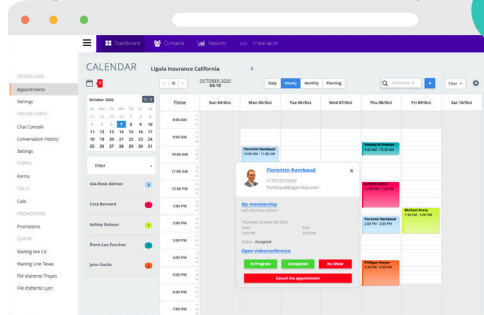

Your customers book appointments online !

Thanks to our easy to integrate solution, your customers have access to your agenda directly from your website, social networks profiles, Google My Business, and even your email signature. They check your availabilities and choose a slot for the appointment. You also have the possibility to add a payment request before the appointment validation.

Your agenda is filling up +

You can access your schedule from your computer, tablet and smartphone. You have the view on appointments booked by your team, services, rooms and equipments available. Your schedule can be synchronized with Google Calendar, Outlook, Office 365 or Ical.

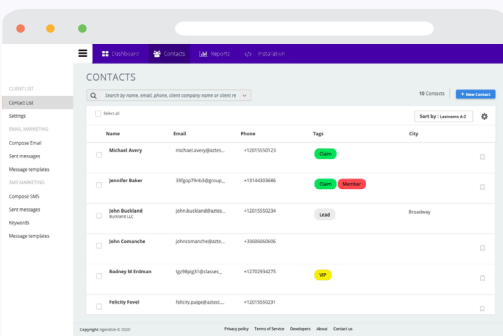

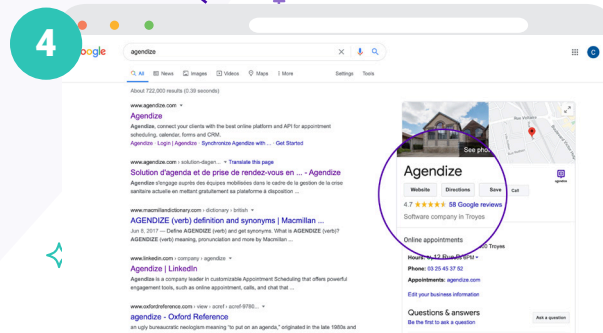

Your customers receive a reminder message

Stop no-show appointments ! Your customers receive an email or text message reminding them the details of the appointment.

You win customer reviews

After each appointment, you have the option to send an email to your clients to collect their feedback. The review can be directly added to your Google My Business listing to increase your brand awareness and your web presence.

Your customer database is growing

All your contacts are stored in a CRM! Each one of your contacts has a customer record on which the appointment history is located. Integrating GDPR consent directly, you have the possibility to execute direct marketing actions with Email campaigns.

“The most important benefit to Plurial Novilia has been the decongestion of its call-center and physical receptions. But that's not all ! This allowed Plurial Novilia to propose seven appointment categories available for online appointments, with specific durations set for each.

Plurial Novilia,
Social Housing Company

“Online scheduling saves us a lot of time, because we no longer need to synchronize our own calendars to book appointments. In addition, it also allows us to significantly reduce our workload outside the gym opening hours. Our clients called us to book appointments when they thought about it.

Stephane Herrgott,
Manager, Coach and founder of Flash Form

“Ease and modernist. I advise this service to everyone because it allows a real time saving for users.

Patrick Lecomte,
Manager of Lecomte Prestige and Siligom

How do business and customers respond to booking online ?

À propos d'Agendize

At Agendize we are convinced each person is a potential entrepreneur, and we have the mission to help them achieve his or her ambitions.

We are the creators of a customer engagement SaaS platform that improves business productivity for customer conversion, engagement and retention.

Agendize offers a sophisticated and scalable online appointment scheduling solution that adapts to any size business within industry and sector.

«We were very pleased with Agendize's powerful suite of APIs and the ability to customize interfaces in producing a German-language version for our clients.

Having Agendize as a preferred partner will add crucial value for them»

Michael Oschmann, CEO of Sellwerk

«The simplicity of the configuration was a leitmotif of our study. We had to find the solution that offered both the greatest ease and the best integration in our notorial ecosystem, especially with its security constraints »

Damien Gréau, R&D Manager Groupe ADSN
