

You are valued

Employment, training and skill development

Steady, meaningful employment opens many doors in life, facilitating independence and choice.

My Career is NDIS registered support designed to assist people with disability to find and keep work.

Learn work focused skills, enter job training and find a job you enjoy with Achieve Australia's My Career services.

Our experts can support you with:

- Earning an income in a supportive workplace
- Employment opportunities
- Travel training
- Ongoing support

achieve
australia

AchievAble Enterprises

Sharpen your skills and have fun at the same time by working for AchievAble Enterprises.

We have a state-of-the-art workspace that marries perfectly into an inclusive work environment. Based in Newington, the team work on major projects that are both fun and rewarding.

You can be part of projects that range from:

- Hand assembly of kits
- Cosmetic packaging
- Mail distribution
- Packing showbags
- Mixing paints
- Driving forklifts
- Airline meal and cutlery packing and more

Contact Achieve to see how we can support you to gain meaningful employment on 1300 224438 or go to info@achieveaustraliaorg.au

The Sewing Basket

Featuring a wide range of unique fabrics and patterns, embroidery stock, haberdashery and more, The Sewing Basket offers you the unique opportunity to work in retail. The team mans the register, deals with customer enquiries, replaces stock, and creates instore displays.

The Sewing Basket has stores across Sydney and the Central Coast, and there are full and part time opportunities. We are also recruiting volunteers to help customers with their fabric, sewing and crafting needs.

Develop your interpersonal skills, work in retail learn more about customer service, have fun and make new friends at The Sewing Basket.

The Sewing Basket locations are at:

Newington - Unit 5, 2 Holker St NSW 2127

Balmain - 450 Darling St NSW 2041

Kincumber - Unit 5, 11-13 Cochrone St NSW 2251

