

How to livestream from Zoom to YouTube to your BuzzIt event

If you're a Zoom user that's unfamiliar with livestreaming, you're halfway there. Follow this easy guide to become a pro streamer.

Requirements

YouTube Requirements:

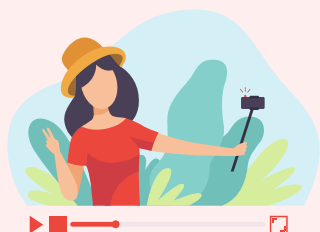

- A verified YouTube channel
- Enable livestreaming on your YouTube channel

Zoom Requirements:

- A Licensed Zoom account
- Enable Custom Live Streaming

YouTube

1 Schedule a YouTube livestream

In one browser window, open your YouTube channel, hit the CREATE button and then select GO LIVE to create a scheduled livestream. YouTube will carry your Zoom stream into BuzzIt.

You'll need these 3 items from the scheduled livestream's settings page to copy into Zoom:

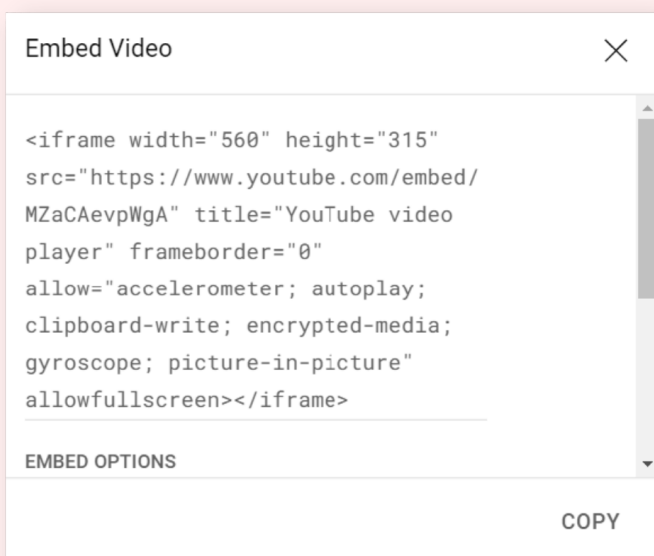

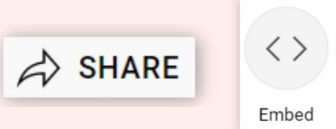

- Stream URL
- Stream Key
- Live streaming page URL

3 Get your livestream embed link from YouTube

- Live streaming page URL

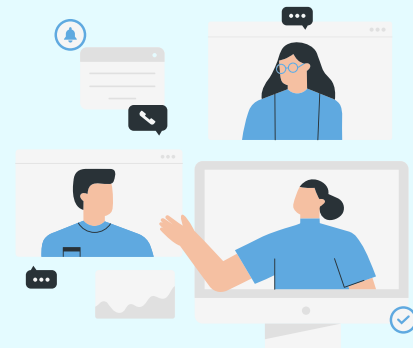

Open the live streaming page URL from above in another browser window, click the SHARE button beneath the video, and select the Embed option.

Click COPY and head to BuzzIt to add your livestream to your event.

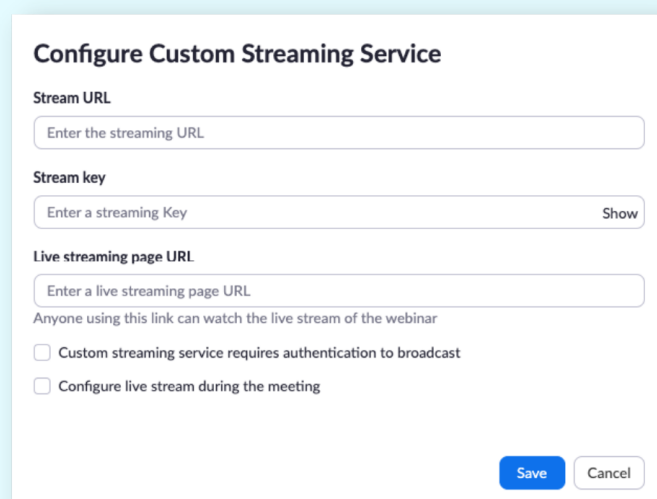

Zoom

2 Create a scheduled Zoom Meeting

In a second browser window, open your Zoom Dashboard and schedule a meeting for your event date.

Once you've created the meeting, copy in the 3 items from YouTube to the Zoom meeting's Configure Custom Streaming Service window (found at the bottom of the page).
