

Personal Statement Writing

Why is it important?

Your personal statement is a key part of your university application. It's your opportunity to showcase your passion and interest in your subject, as well as what you can bring to university life.

Course Information

- ✓ 100% online
- ✓ Delivered in English
- ✓ Suitable for ages 16+
- ✓ EtonX certificate
- ✓ Feedback on two drafts*

Our Personal Statement Writing course will develop your understanding of what makes a good university personal statement and help you write your own. The course explores the different qualities admissions tutors want to see on personal statements and how you should communicate them. You will write two personal statement drafts and receive feedback* on them to help you further develop your personal statement.
