

University Interview Skills

Why is it important to practice?

On getting to interview stage, you have roughly a 1 in 4 chance of getting a place at your chosen university. Develop the skills to ensure you are well-prepared to beat the odds.

Our University Interview Skills course will equip you with the skills and knowledge needed to prepare for interview. We demystify the interview process by delving into the interviewer's perspective, the information they already have about you and the traits and skills they're looking for. The course will also explore the types of questions you may be asked and how best to tackle them, and help you develop strategies to manage nerves, to enable you to make the most of your experience.
