PwC Switzerland and the Fidynam Group enter into cooperation

Zurich, January 11, 2021 - PwC Switzerland and the Lugano-based Fidynam Group are pleased to announce a new cooperation to expand the Abacus consulting business in Switzerland: PwC Switzerland will transfer its approximately 25 employees and Abacus business to Fidynam at the end of the first quarter of 2021, and will remain the main client of the Fidynam Group's new business.

In this way, Fidynam strengthens its presence in Switzerland and acquires important expertise in a business area that is strategic for it.

PwC Switzerland is pleased to have found in Fidynam a strong company that shares the same values as PwC in terms of quality of service and professional environment, and that intends to invest significantly in the Abacus implementation activity.
