The Prophet ﷺ once passed by Sa’ad ibn Abi Waqqas when he was doing wudu, and he ﷺ asked Sa’ad, “What is this extravagance, oh Sa’ad?” Confused that the Prophet would attribute extravagance to his use of an abundant natural resource for the intention of worship, Sa’ad inquired, “Can there be any extravagance in wudu?” He ﷺ said, “Yes, even if you are on the bank of a flowing river.” (Ibn Majah & Ahmad)

If there is a noble intent in using a natural resource, such as using water for making wudu, would it be considered sinful or excessive if you used more of that resource than needed? Explain.
If there is an abundance of a natural resource, would it be considered sinful or excessive if we use more of that resource than what is needed? Explain.
If the intention is neutral and the natural resource is scarce, would it be considered sinful or excessive if we used more of that resource than what is needed? Explain.

Challenge: For an entire day, attempt to minimize the amount of water you use for wudu by using the water of a single bottle.
