Papeete, Tahiti | Thursday, July 28, 2022

Begin your voyage through paradise in Papeete, the capital of Tahiti, and the largest city of the French Polynesian islands. Tahiti is the largest island in French Polynesia and graced with black-sand beaches, lagoons, waterfalls and two extinct volcanoes. Explored by Captain James Cook in the 18th century, it was often painted by French artist Paul Gauguin.

Embark on Windstar's luxurious yet casual ms Wind Spirit. With an endless choice of things to do—or relaxing and doing nothing at all—you'll never be bored.

Moorea, French Polynesia | Friday, July 29, 2022

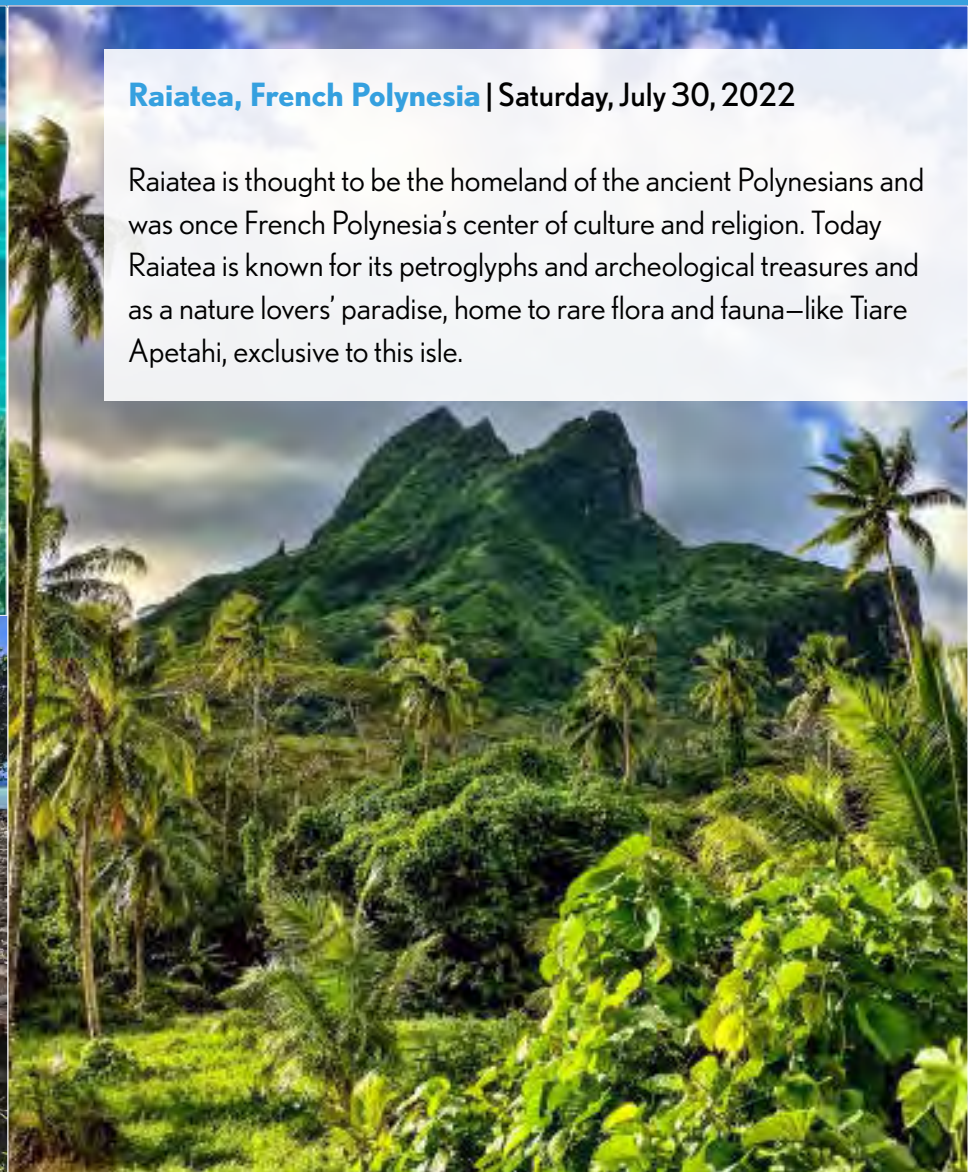

Blessed with spectacular mountain peaks, peaceful multihued lagoons, and palm-fringed beaches, Moorea boasts an unsurpassed beauty. During your visit, shop for local crafts or embark on a dolphin-watching expedition with a marine biologist—and save time to try the delectable local pineapple.

Raiatea, French Polynesia | Saturday, July 30, 2022

Raiatea is thought to be the homeland of the ancient Polynesians and was once French Polynesia's center of culture and religion. Today Raiatea is known for its petroglyphs and archeological treasures and as a nature lovers' paradise, home to rare flora and fauna—like Tiare Apetahi, exclusive to this isle.

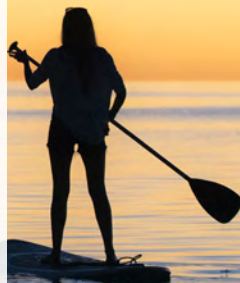

Taha'a French Polynesia | Sunday, July 31, 2022

We leave Raiatea at 6 am to sail to Motu Mahana, an islet adjacent to Taha'a that will be our very own South Seas paradise. You'll spend a full day on this idyllic island, pursuing your own pleasure, whether that's swimming, snorkeling, and kayaking in the turquoise lagoon, playing volleyball, or simply relaxing.

Bora Bora, French Polynesia | Monday, August 1, 2022 Tuesday, August 2, 2022

Dominated by towering Mount Otemanu and surrounded by a lagoon protected by low-lying coral reefs, Bora Bora is simply spectacular. Explore this Pacific paradise however you prefer... take a snorkeling tour or underwater lagoon walk, enjoy an exciting helicopter tour, or thrill to a sunset tour by jet boat.

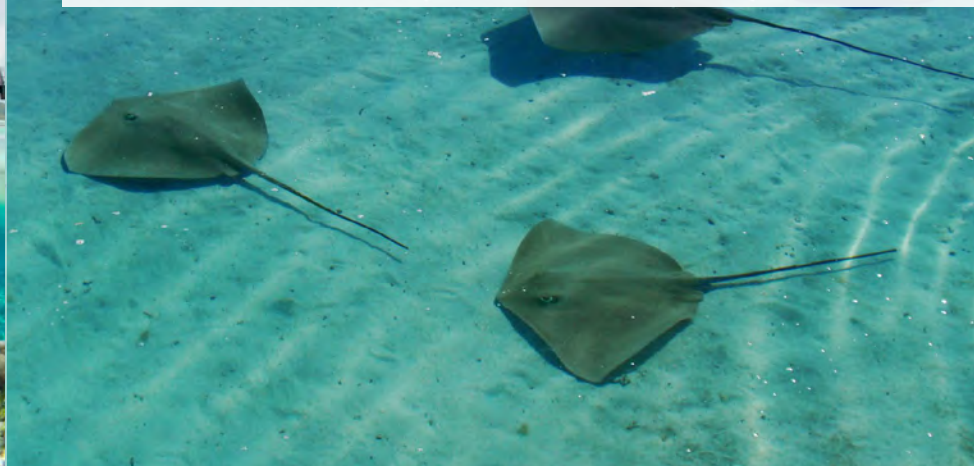

Huahine, French Polynesia | Wednesday, August 3, 2022

In Huahine, known as the “Garden Island” for its lush rainforests and dramatic terrain, you can explore the island’s sacred sites and legendary landmarks—among the best-preserved archaeological remains in French Polynesia. Enjoy snorkeling or scuba diving in the expansive lagoon or a picnic on the beach.

Papeeti, Tahiti | Thursday, August 4, 2022

Cap off your epic journey where it all began. You won’t be the same as when you first set sail—these beautiful islands are said to touch people in magical ways.
