POST-RIVERBOAT VACATION STRETCHERS
APRIL-MAY 2022

USA & CANADA: 800-631-6277 x1 | INTERNATIONAL: 415-962-5700 x1

Amsterdam is often referred to as one of the most colorful cities in the world, and rightly so! Where else can you find so many places of interest, world-famous museums, cozy pubs, cobblestone streets along tree-lined canals, one-of-a-kind shops and flower markets? Extend your vacation with Olivia and give yourself the time to experience all that Amsterdam has to offer! We are pleased to announce we have already arranged for our favorite LGBT and LGBT-friendly guides.

With so many sights and things to experience and do, Amsterdam is truly a delightful city that should be given due time to visit.

ABOUT YOUR TOURS

KEUKENHOF GARDENS & BULBFIELDS

After breakfast on board your ship, your luggage will be whisked away to the hotel for storage, and we will disembark the ship to begin our $\frac{3}{4}$ day tour starting with a visit to Keukenhof Gardens. When you think of the Netherlands, Dutch tulips are likely among the first things to come to mind. Keukenhof is the world's foremost annual tulip exhibition, where more than seven million tulips, daffodils, and hyacinths filling over 32 hectares of gardens with color and fragrance. You can order gorgeous bulbs to be shipped in time for fall planting! Nearby, we will drive through the bulb-fields where the acres of bulbs are grown, and the fields are like a magic carpet of color. There will be opportunities to stop for photos of these colorful fields.

After almost 3 full hours to visit the gardens, we head just 15 minutes away to the Venneper Lodge for a traditional Dutch lunch—pannekoek (pancake) and beverage. Choose from 4 types of pancakes: cheese, bacon, apples and cinnamon, or Nutella. Then drive back to the hotel for check-in and free time.

OLD TOWN, JORDAAN, FLOWER MARKET & HOMO MONUMENT

This morning we will provide a VOX head set, and set out on a 3-hour walking tour, taking you through various centuries, showing you details you may miss by bus or boat. We will show you Café 't Mandje, recognized as the first gay bar in the Netherlands and one of the first in the world, founded by lesbian Bet van Beeren in 1927. We continue our journey to Dam Square to see the monument which commemorates the victims of WWII. We walk by the Anne Frank house (no tour, pass by only) and stop in at a pancake bakery for a taste of “poffertjes”; delicious mini-pancakes with butter and powdered sugar. The Jordaan neighborhood is filled with antique shops and historical treasures.

We will walk you through the beautiful flower market before arriving to the Homo Monument, the first gay monument in the world, and the focal point of Amsterdam's gay pride celebrations. Lastly, we walk you through the Haarlemmerstraat, filled with local shops and voted to be the nicest shopping street in the Netherlands. This hip and trendy street is a perfect end to our walking tour. You may choose to walk back to the hotel with the group or stay and enjoy lunch in one of the area's restaurants and enjoy a leisurely walk back on your own.

WINDMILL AND EDAM TOUR

This afternoon we will go Dutch all the way! The bus will drive north, 45 minutes through scenic Polderland Beemster, viewing how the Dutch stole the land from the sea. We arrive at the one of the 11 remaining original windmills in Schermerhorn and have an opportunity to visit the windmill from top to bottom and see how the families used to live. We continue to Edam, the place to be for cheese. You'll have a 1-hour walking tour of this village with a visit to Kaaswaag, one of the origins of world-renowned round cheeses. After sampling some of the many cheeses, you'll have free time to explore on your own.

INTERESTED IN VISITING THE ANNE FRANK HOUSE?

Due to a change in the Anne Frank House group ticket procedures, we are no longer able to arrange group tickets to include in our packages.

We highly recommend booking our 3-night package and spending the 3rd morning or afternoon visiting this historical monument.
