GETTING STARTED WITH BOOK SALON

Book Salon is easy to set up and test. You can access the service from our website and start using the free version straight away. Chat support is available to guide you at every step. We can also transfer your existing customer register and offer support remotely free of charge. This makes it easy to transfer pre-existing appointments, your gift card register and inventory. And remember, you can use Book Salon on any internet-enabled device.

You can access the payment terminal by switching to the PRO plan. Once the Book Salon account is set up, the payment terminal will automatically connect to the checkout. You will receive the device to your office within 3-5 business days. The system is easy to learn, whether you are a beginner entrepreneur or an experienced systems user!

Create a free Book Salon account on our website

- Creating a user account is easy and only takes about 15 minutes.
- If you know how to use a Facebook account, you can also manage Book Salon.
- You don't need to commit to anything.

Contact us and arrange a free set-up

- We will transfer your previous customer register, product register and gift card register to Book Salon free of charge.
- Chat support is just a click away and our experts are available weekdays during office hours.

Get started step by step

- Familiarise yourself with the appointment system from your customer's perspective and post an appointment link when it suits you. You can always accept bookings by phone, even when you have an electronic appointment system.
- You will receive an easy-to-use payment terminal at your location in a few business days. The payment terminal works seamlessly with the register. Card payments are received to your account within two business days.
- Book Salon supports the growth of your business. You can add new employees or rental chair entrepreneurs at no extra charge.
