

Trina Olson

A seasoned nonprofit executive, and two-time executive director, Olson has developed a wealth of strategy, management and messaging expertise. She is a sought after speaker, trainer, and coach. Olson has personally lobbied tens of thousands of voters, legislators, the White House and federal agencies.

Olson recently co-authored the report, "Fairness in Philanthropy, Leveling the Playing Field for Our LGBTQ Neighbors" as well as a chapter in the newest edition of The Routledge Handbook on LGBTQIA Administration and Policy entitled, "Seeking Safe Haven: LGBTQ People and the American Immigration Experience.

Olson's most recent body of work is centered on capacity building, training and coaching with leaders and groups that desire to make transformational change at the intersections of race and gender justice.