

Position Title:
Clinical Renal Specialist, HD

Location: Central

Responsibilities

Professional

- Develops and conducts formal and informal educational, seminars and forums for appropriate staff and customers.
- Maintains own level of knowledge and clinical competence in accordance with current trends in contemporary Renal Medicine and professional development.
- Demonstrated organisational, decision-making and problem solving skills, combined with the ability to be self-directed.
- Support Sales activities in the principle area of coverage.
- Actively participates and undertakes quality improvement activities.
- Works harmoniously as an integral part of the multidisciplinary team.
- Displays a professional image to the customers at all times.

Clinical

- Maintains and updates renal medicine/clinical skills and theoretical knowledge.
- Completes clinical and mandatory competencies annually
- Consults with State Manager with regard to customer clinical issues.
- Consults with team members to foster exchange of information.
- Communicates information to higher management to assist in future directions/plans and

Administration

- Attends and actively participates in meetings, teleconferences etc accordingly.
- Ensures efficient and effective utilization of resources.
- Performs defined management functions when required

Quality Improvement

- Actively participates in the development, implementation and maintenance of continuous quality improvement programs.
- Identifies needs of customers and adapt services according to appropriate recommendations.
- Develops consultation mechanisms with service users and organizations.

Position Title:
Clinical Renal Specialist, HD

Location: Central

Requirements

Essential:

- Medical graduate/Registered Nurse (Bachelor's Degree preferred)- Current Registration.
- Demonstrated knowledge of contemporary Renal Medicine theory and practice.
- Effective and Sound communication skills – oral, written & presentation (English & Bahasa Malaysia)
- Team player, good dynamics with marketing, service and sales team.
- Willing to travel.
- Current Driver's License.
- Computer literacy.

Desirable:

- Experience in Renal Medicine/Nephrology
- Demonstrated commitment to quality improvement initiatives.
- Knowledge of adult learning and prior educator experience.

If you are interested in this job position, please email your resume to

hr.my@fmc-asia.com