

BETTER CYBER-SAFE THAN SORRY

BULLYING DOES NOT JUST HAPPEN IN THE PLAYGROUND

Young people are being bullied online right now. Understanding what to do about it can help stop the harm it causes.

“Cyberbullying” is bullying that takes place in online platforms. It can be carried through electronic technology, including mobile phones, computers, social media, text messages, email, chat rooms, discussion groups and websites. Stay Alert! Look out for any signs and start the conversation with your child. TALK.ASK.LISTEN.

In online situations, it is better to be Cyber-safe than sorry. To learn how to talk to your child about this, visit www.gov.ky/cybersafe

Report to MASH@DCFS.gov.ky or Tel: 945-0545 or RCIPS Tel: 911. All communication will be kept confidential and you will be offered support.
