

Subject: Level 4 Travel Advisory

Subtitle: Important update: global Level 4 health advisory - do not travel

Dear Elliott,

Earlier today the US State Department issued a new “Level 4” travel advisory urging U.S. citizens not to travel out of the country. They also urged any Americans who are already abroad to return to the United States if possible. For more information on the travel advisory, click here.

Our team is proactively reaching out to impacted travelers, but if you need to reach us we’re here to help you in any way we can. Our support team is available 24/7 by phone, chat, or email.

Although we at AmTrav are in the business of bringing people together in person, in these extraordinary times we are much more focused on the health and safety of our customers, our team, and our communities. We are urging everyone to reconsider any non-essential travel right now. If we work together, we can slow the spread of the virus and flatten the curve. This is important to keep our health care system intact so, soon enough, we can all get back to living our lives, including traveling.

Stay Safe,

Rebecca Gavin
