About Concert For Classrooms

Featuring some of Canada's finest roots and country musicians, this one-of-a-kind event has raised nearly $1 million to support Classroom Champions' work with classrooms across Alberta.

The 7th annual benefit concert, co-chaired by Craig Senyk and Ross Roy, is a tribute to the late Calgarian Peter Burgener, an influential architect, activist, philanthropist and avid country music fan.

Concert for Classrooms is proudly presented by Mawer Investment Management. Concert Song Sponsors will be highlighted during the event with a unique monologue scripted by Barney Bentall and co-host Matt Masters.

All funds raised helps Classroom Champions bring powerful programming to kids who need it most.

About Classroom Champions

Classroom Champions empowers children to thrive socially, emotionally, and academically through the mentorship and mindsets of world-class athletes. They envision a community that brings together children and the world's best to learn the skills they need to succeed in and out of the classroom.

Over the past decade, Classroom Champions has connected 200+ Olympics, Paralympic, professional and collegiate athletes as mentors for more than 5 million underserved students, supported 800+ teachers, and engaged thousands of families and surrounding communities.

Through a digital athlete mentorship in the classroom, Classroom Champions helps develop social and emotional growth mindsets in our kids, build their citizenship and leadership skills, digital literacy and encourages individual academic achievement, meanwhile developing teachers and enhancing school infrastructure.
