Purpose of Notice of Right to Opt-Out

The purpose of this NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OPT-OUT is to inform consumers of their right to direct a business that sells their personal information to stop selling their personal information.

Your Right to Opt Out of the Sale of Your Personal Information

Under the CCPA, a consumer shall have the right, at any time, to direct a business that sells personal information about the consumer to third parties not to sell the consumer’s personal information. This right may be referred to as the right to opt-out.

A business that has received direction from a consumer not to sell the consumer’s personal information (or, in the case of a minor consumer’s personal information has not received consent to sell the minor consumer’s personal information) shall be prohibited, pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 1798.135, from selling the consumer’s personal information after its receipt of the consumer’s direction, unless the consumer subsequently provides express authorization for the sale of the consumer’s personal information.

What is Personal Information

California defines personal information as “information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household.” It includes, but is not limited to, identifiers such as a real name, alias, postal address, unique personal identifier, online identifier, Internet protocol address, email address, account name, social security number, driver’s license number, passport number or anything similar. Personal information does not include deidentified or aggregate consumer information or information that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or local government records. (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.140(o)).
