

Bedford Group Transearch is a leading privately-held, retained North American executive search firm

Who We Are

We are the Canadian partner to Transearch, one of the world's top-10 executive search firms with 60 offices in 40+ countries.

For more than four decades, we have provided premium executive search and talent management services to a diverse group of publicly traded and privately held organizations ranging from start-ups to multi-nationals, across all sectors.

Our team of experts has a deep understanding of the current and emerging global talent and leadership trends with proven capabilities supporting the North American marketplace, with strong emphasis in Toronto, Boston, New Jersey, New York, California, Vancouver and Montreal.

Bedford Group Transearch provides a holistic suite of talent services that ensure you have the right leaders, in the right roles, doing the right things.

- Retained Executive Search
- Executive & Board Compensation
- Culture Diagnostics
- Talent Scouting
- Leadership Assessment & Development
- Organizational Strategy
- Leadership Integration & Virtual Onboarding
- Executive Coaching

How We're Unique

Bedford Group Transearch provides clients with a unique and robust executive search process that ensures we help you attract and retain not merely the best leaders, but the right leaders. We deliver this through proven, proprietary diagnostic and assessment tools that measure candidates' across the four key dimensions of fit: Culture, Team, Performance and Leadership. This approach has enabled us to achieve an unparalleled track-record of success with a 93% retention rate for Bedford Group Transearch placed candidates, three years post-hire.

We Deliver Results

#1

Performing office among 60 global locations in Transearch

93%

Industry leading retention rate three years post hire

60%

North American Assignments

40%

Global Assignments

85%

of business comes through repeat, satisfied clients

5,000+

Completed searches

