About Arianee

Founded in 2017, Arianee is an independent, nonprofit consortium whose mission is to implement a global standard for the digital certification of luxury goods. The Arianee protocol makes it possible to associate each luxury product with its own unique, unforgeable digital identity. This digital “identity card” opens up a secure, permanent, and anonymous communication channel between brands, products, and AQ owners. Powered by blockchain technology, this solution is open-source and decentralized. <https://www.arianee.org> Arianee proposes the first Saas platform, backed by the first mobile solutions which allow brands a comprehensive use of Arianee’s protocol. On March 11th, 2021, Arianee announced funding of €8 million to further develop our technology and meet the growing demand from fashion & luxury brands.
